Rome, October 24,

THE Pope being under great Apprehenſion that the Imperinl Army commanded by Prince Eugene of Savoy will come into the Province of Ferrara at the end of the Campaign to take Winter-Quarters there, held a Congregation this Week to conſult what Meaſures might be proper for him to take thereupon. That Apprehenſion was encreas'd by the Advice his Holineſs receiv'd the 19th Inſtant from the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara, that a very great Quantity of Corn and other Proviſions deſign'd for the Emperor's Army in Lombardy was embarking at Trieſte in Iſtria, in ſeveral Veſſels which 'tis ſuppos'd are to bring it to ſome Place on the lower Po. 2 or 3 Days ago the Ambaſſador of Spain deliver'd to the Pope a Letter he had receiv'd for him from the Court of Madrid. In that Letter King Philip V. earneſtly deſires his Holineſs to publiſh a Bull of Excommunication againſt thoſe Biſhops and other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons of Catalonia and other Provinces of Spain that have acknowledg,d King Charles III. The Pope has return'd an Anſwer to this Letter, but the Contents of it are not yet known. The Pedeſtal of the Columna Antoniniana is dug up; the Bas Reliefs of it are extremely admir'd for their Beauty, notwithſtanding they have ſuffer'd ſome Injury by the Hand sof the Barbarians and by Time.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated November 12.

Madrid, November 23. The King has ſent Order to the Head Collectors of the Taxes of New and Old Caſtile to levy the Taxes due from thoſe Provinces by the end of next Month, on the Penalty of being turn'd out of their Employments; and it being foreſeen thoſe Collectors muſt be oblig'd to uſe Force to compel the People to pay, Order is likewiſe ſent to all Governours and Magiſtrates to be aiding and aſſiſting to them. Thoſe of the Grandees who are not yet reconcil'd to the King's cauſing a Stool to be plac'd in his Chappel for the Captain of his Guards, having for ſome time had no Letters come ro their Hands, make great Complaints that the Court muſt needs have given Order that all Letters directed to them ſhould be ſtopt in rhe Poſt-Office. We have Advice that the Inhabitants of Vineros in Valencia and ſome other Places thereabouts have open'd their Gates to ſome of the revolted Catalans that came thither, and have declar'd for the Arch-Duke; and that they have worſted a Regiment of Horſe which was ſent to reduce them. The revolted Catalans, who have form'd themſelves into Regiments and Companies like regular Forces, have choſen the Count de Cifuentes for their General, and the Arch-Duke has confirm'd that Choice: That Prince has alſo made the Biſhop of Salſona a Patriarch and one of his Council.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 17.

Leiden, November 17. Letters from Ratisbon of the 9th of this Month adviſe, That the Duke of Marlborough arriving there the 6th, was complimented by the Magiſtrates, who made him a Preſent of Wine, Fiſh, &c. and that the 7th in the Morning his Grace proceeded from thence for Vienna by Water. That the ſame Day Cardinal Lamberg arriv'd there from Paſſaw. And that the Biſhop of Wurtzbourg one of thoſe that oppos'd the 9th Electorate, has acknowledg'd the Elector of Hanover. 'Tis adviſ'd from Berlin the 10th Inſtant that Baron Printz left that Court the 6th, to return to the King of Sweden in Poland.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated November 17.

Francfort, November 11. The Imperial Army is at preſent incamp'd between Haguenau and Biſchweiler: The Enemy give out they will beſiege or bombard Haguenau, but that Town has a Garriſon of 6000 Men and all things needful for its Defence. 'Tis certain the Enemy have got together a great number of Carts and Waggons for ſome Expedition. It being expected they will endeavour to incommode the Imperialiſts in their Winter-Quarters, there will be no Troops put into any open Towns or Villages. The Mortality among the Horſes in the Armies is at this time very great. The Enemy keep Men at work to ſtrengthen the Fortifications of Homburg, and give out they are already in ſo good a Condition, that ſhould that Place be beſieg'd, it would be able to hold out 4 Weeks. The Pruſſian Troops being recall'd, will leave the Army the 20th of this Month, and march in 5 Columns to take Winter-Quarters in the Territories of the King of Pruſſia.

From the Amſt. Cour. Nov. 14. and Leid. Gaz. Nov. 17.

Paris, November 9. 'Tis rumour'd here that the Elector of Bavaria has Orders to attack Lillo. An Ordinance is publiſh'd by which the Pariſhes of the ſeveral Provinces of the Kingdom are enjoyn'd to furniſh 26850 Men for recruiting the Foot of the King's Armies in Spain and Italy by the end of next Month. There muſt be another levy of Recruits of Foot for the Armies in the Netherlands and on the Upper Rhine; and an Ordinance is ſhortly expected to come out for that purpoſe. Recruits for the Horſe are to be rais'd by the Officers as uſual. The Jews of Metz have undertaken to furniſh 8000 Horſes by the middle of February, and ſeveral Perſons of Switzerland have agreed to furniſh 6000 more by that time. The Gendarmery who ſerv'd this Campaign in the Netherlands are on the March up to take Winter-Quarters on the Borders of Champagne: And the other Troops of the King's Houſehold are coming towards this part of the Country. 'Tis talk'd the Confederate Fleet deſign'd to poſſeſs themſelves of Port Mahone in the Iſland of Minorca, and to Winter there; but it being advis'd that M. de Jontieres is arriv'd there from Thoulon with a Re-enforcement of 600 Men and Stores of Ammunition, we reckon that Deſign is fruſtrated.

From the Paris Gazette, dated November 14.
